

March 10, 2016

NEW LOOK, NAME REVEALED FOR PROPOSED PORTS O' CALL VILLAGE REVITALIZATION

On Wednesday, March 2nd, Mayor Eric Garcetti was joined by Councilman Joe Buscaino, Developer Wayne Ratkovich and Port Executive Director Gene Seroka, to introduce the proposed San Pedro Public Market, a new name and a new look for Ports O' Call Village.

That same evening, The Ratkovich Company and Jerico Development, Inc. held a community meeting at the Warner Grand Theatre in downtown San Pedro, where the details of the $100 million, 30-acre proposal for the revitalization of Ports O' Call Village were presented. Click here for detailed presentation.

READ MORE

CROWDS POUR IN TO BROUWERIJ WEST TO CELEBRATE GRAND OPENING

On Saturday, February 27th, Brouwerij West opened its doors and taps to welcome over 4,000 beer enthusiasts in celebration of the grand opening of their new craft brewery housed in Warehouse 9, the sister warehouse to Warehouse 10 where CRAFTED at the Port of Los Angeles is located.

MORE INFO

PORT OF LOS ANGELES COMMUNITY INVESTMENT GRANT APPLICATIONS FOR FISCAL YEAR 2016-17 NOW AVAILABLE

For the third consecutive year, the Port of Los Angeles will make up to $1 million in non-taxpayer funded community grants through the Community Investment Grant Program, which supports initiatives, programs, and events benefiting Los Angeles Harbor communities. Community Investment Grant Program workshops will be held on March 30th and 31st to assist local organizations prepare grant applications.

Grant applications for the 2016-2017 grant-funding year are due Monday, May 9, by 5 p.m.

READ MORE

TEAHOUSE VISITS PORT OF LA'S KNOLL HILL THROUGH MARCH 21ST

Built from Redwood trees lost in the 2007 Griffith Park fire, the Griffith Park Teahouse was created by a group of anonymous artists and was originally spotted in Griffith Park last summer. The same teahouse recently appeared on Leap Day morning, under a Pepper tree on Knoll Hill in San Pedro. The meditative wooden structure welcomes all to visit, rest on the bench, write a wish for the City of LA on one of the Balsa wood shingles provided and hang it on the wall inside. Don't forget to ring the teahouse bell to seal your wish. The teahouse will be in town through March 21st.

[READ DAILY
BREEZE STORY](#)

ENVIRONMENTAL DATA NOW AVAILABLE ON PORTOFLOSANGELES.ORG HOMEPAGE

Port of Los Angeles' Executive Director Gene Seroka announced at the March 3, 2016 Board of Harbor Commissioners Meeting that new environmental compliance data is now available on the Port's homepage.

CLICK HERE TO VIEW DATA

22 PORT ENGINEERS VISIT WITH OVER 400

STUDENTS DURING ENGINEERS WEEK

The 65th Anniversary of National Engineers Week was celebrated February 21st through 27th. In honor of this event, the Port of Los Angeles sent 22 employees from the Engineering and Construction Division to present to approximately 400 students at four different schools: Alliance Alice M. Baxter College-Ready High School, Port of Los Angeles High School, Wilmington Middle School and Crestwood Elementary School.

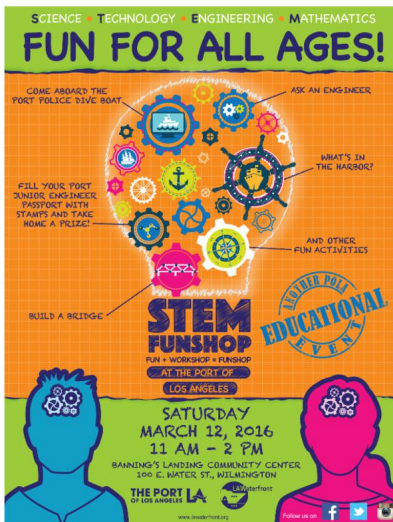

Designed to celebrate and promote engineers as well as to expose students to what it is like to be an engineer, participants in Engineers Week enjoyed activities such as building bridges with gumdrops and toothpicks, and constructing cars from lifesavers, paper and tape.

2016 UPCOMING EVENTS AT THE PORT OF LA

Port of Los Angeles Harbor Cup 2016
Friday, March 11 through Sunday, March 13
Los Angeles Yacht Club

S.T.E.M. Funshop
Saturday, March 12, 11 a.m. to 2 p.m.
Banning's Landing Community Center
100 E. Water Street, Wilmington

Family Bike Rodeo
Saturday, March 19, 9 a.m. to 12 p.m.
Cabrillo Way Marina
Via Cabrillo Marina Plaza Parking Lot, San Pedro
(Via Cabrillo Marina & Shoshonean Road)

Pet Parade
St. Patrick's Day Theme
Saturday, March 26, 9 a.m. to 10 a.m.
Downtown Harbor, San Pedro

[VIEW 2016
COMMUNITY
CALENDAR](#)

[JOIN
MAILING LIST](#)

Copyright © 2015 All Rights Reserved.