PORT HOSTS ROUNDTABLE WITH SECRETARY OF COMMERCE

On Friday, April 15th, the Port of Los Angeles hosted the Los Angeles Regional Roundtable as the first in a series of regional roundtables which Secretary of Commerce Penny Pritzker will hold with key ports and their stakeholders around the United States.

The objective of these roundtables is to ensure the United States has the 21st Century seaport operations and infrastructure in place to maintain and improve American competitiveness, attract additional investment in American manufacturing, strengthen U.S. supply chains, facilitate international trade, catalyze regional and national economic development and spur job creation. The roundtables will be used to identify best practices that will improve port operations and efficiency and reduce congestion.

PORT OF LOS ANGELES ANNOUNCES NEW FELLOWS PROGRAM

The Port of Los Angeles has created its first-ever Fellows Program, an educational initiative to develop the next generation of maritime and port leadership. The one-year program offers on-the-job experience to graduate students seeking potential careers in public administration, logistics, port and terminal operations, or public safety.
