VIDEO:
THE PORT'S INAUGURAL LA FLEET WEEK™
2016 TO BECOME AN ANNUAL TRADITION

The Port of Los Angeles' inaugural LA Fleet Week™ event was held from September 2 through September 5. Two naval vessels, the USS America and the USS Wayne E. Meyer, and one United States Coast Guard Cutter, Active, offered free ship tours throughout the event. An estimated 200,000 visitors also enjoyed selfie ship tours, military equipment displays, aerial flyovers and demonstrations, live music and gourmet food trucks. LA Fleet Week™ is set to become an annual Labor Day Weekend tradition at the Port of LA. For information and to receive news and updates, go to LAFleetWeek.com

VIDEO:
NEARLY 4000 PARTICIPANTS
CONQUERED THE BRIDGE ON SEPT. 5th

The 8th Annual Conquer The Bridge event took place on Labor Day Monday, September 5th, at 7am at the Port of Los Angeles. As part of LA Fleet Week™ 2016, the event drew nearly 4000 participants, 200 of which were men and women from the U.S. Armed Forces. The 5.3 mile course took runners and walkers down Harbor Blvd., up and over the Vincent Thomas Bridge and back over the bridge to the finish line on 5th and Harbor Blvd. All participants were given an official Conquer The Bridge finisher's medal.

THE PORT OF LOS ANGELES LAUNCHES
SUSTAINABLE PROGRESS WEBSITE

As part of an effort to inform and engage the public in sustainable freight programs and environmental developments at America's largest trade gateway, the Port of Los Angeles has introduced a new Sustainable Progress website. The site provides at-a-glance details, statistics and current status updates on major Port environmental programs. Site visitors can also learn about and track air quality mitigation measures, and submit questions or concerns directly to Port environmental staff.
