PORT OF LA REDUCES WATER USAGE BY 29%

Since Mayor Eric Garcetti's Mayoral Executive Directive No. 5: Emergency Drought Response \(ED5\) became effective on November 2, 2014, the Port has reduced water usage by 29%.

The Port's meter readings from 2013 through September of 2015 show that the Port is well ahead of the City of LA's goal of 20% reductions by 2017.

VIDEO: HAPPY HARBOR HALLOWEEN TURNS TEN

On Saturday, October 24th, a combined total of 5,000 Halloween enthusiasts participated in the Port's tenth annual Happy Harbor Halloween event. With two locations, Wilmington Waterfront Park and the Port's new Downtown Harbor, it was double the fun. The event featured arts and crafts, face painting, a marionette puppet show, creepy crawly reptiles and everyone's favorite, the classic Halloween costume parade.
