LOS ANGELES BOARD OF HARBOR COMMISSIONERS HOLDS STRATEGIC PLAN WORKSHOP

SAN PEDRO, Calif. – Giving Port of Los Angeles stakeholders another opportunity to meet and discuss its future direction, the Los Angeles Board of Harbor Commissioners will hold two special Board meetings to discuss the Port's Strategic Plan on the following dates:

- Thursday, January 19, from 6 to 9 p.m., Banning's Landing Community Center, 100 E. Water Street, Wilmington
- Thursday, February 16, from 6 to 9 p.m., Banning's Landing Community Center, 100 E. Water Street, Wilmington

The Strategic Plan sets forth the Port's vision, goals and objectives for the next five years. The Port is seeking input from all of its stakeholders, including Harbor community members, Port employees, customers and local businesses, before drafting the new Strategic Plan. During each meeting, Port staff will recap past community outreach meeting sessions, followed by a public comment period to allow both Board and community members to voice their opinions about the direction of the Port's Strategic Plan.
